Golden Age Retreat

June 2-6, 2025

Speaker:
Roger K. Myers
The Music of Our Faith

Speaker: Roger K. Myers

Roger has served as the pastor of Brandts Covenant Brethren Church in St. Thomas, PA since 2013. He married Lou Ann Eshleman on August 15, 1981 and they look forward to celebrating forty-four years of marriage later this year. In addition to his pastoral responsibilities, he serves as a chaplain for the Pennsylvania State Police and for the Franklin County Sheriff's Office.

Lou Ann is a pastor's daughter and understands the joys and challenges of pastoral ministry. She enjoys sewing, painting, crocheting, and ministering to people both at church and in the community. She works part time at Surplus City in Chambersburg, PA. She teaches a children's Sunday school class and works with the Awana program on Wednesday evenings.

Roger also enjoys writing and arranging music. He performs with the Hagerstown Municipal Band during its summer season in the Hagerstown City Park. He performs with Knock on Wood, a marimba quintet which plays a variety of music for churches, retirement homes, and special events. He is also the director and arranger for Percussion Praise, a fifteen-member ensemble which performs Christmas carols and songs each year at Brandts Church.
